The Jester James Patterson

This was the first James Patterson book I have read, and I must say I was not impressed. (It was co-authored by Andrew Gross, so I cannot say to whose writing style I provide this review). I was first drawn to this book for the tempting story of a man posing as a jester to infiltrate a Duke's castle to save his wife, but that was very short lived.

The Jester by James Patterson - Goodreads

When Hugh finally tells his story to Emilie, she comes up with a novel idea for getting him into Baldwin's castle: he can pose as a jester. Replete with his trademark short chapters and surprising twists and turns, Patterson, along with coauthor Gross, keeps the excitement levels high in this rousing adventure tale.
